

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING YOUR
CONTESTED DIVORCE WITH NO MINOR CHILDREN

This package is for couples that cannot agree on all matters and have no minor children together.

State Law O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51 forbids court personnel to give legal advice. Court personnel includes all employees of the Clerk of Superior Court and the Judges' offices.

This forms packet is designed to guide you in the preparation of your divorce papers. You must fill in the required information as it applies to your situation. Your papers should remain in the same order as they appear in this packet. In many forms, there are some sections that have two possible answers, separated by an [OR]. In these sections, you must choose which of the two choices fits best in your situation. Make sure that everything is signed and notarized as indicated.

If your divorce is contested, it will be your responsibility to have your spouse served with the complaint by the Sheriff's Department after filing.

Remember, the Court does not know you and your situation. To optimize the process, make sure to fill in all spaces and provide as much information as possible. Failure to fill out these forms completely and accurately could result in delay or even dismissal of your action. It is very important that the information you provide is consistent throughout the package and that you include all dates and other information even if you must indicate that it is not relevant for your situation.

Even if it is a friendly divorce, it is suggested that you consult a lawyer before you sign any settlement papers or file anything in court. YOU MAY NEED AN ATTORNEY IF: the case becomes contested and your spouse has a lawyer, you cannot find your spouse to serve him or her with your papers, you might lose custody of your children, you think you will have difficulty getting information and documents from your spouse regarding income, retirement funds, etc., or if you have other special circumstances.

It is your responsibility to have this suit served upon your spouse.

Included in this packet to submit are:

- Complaint for Divorce
- Verification
- Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit of Plaintiff
- Final Judgment and Decree

FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

Upon consideration of this case, upon evidence submitted as provided by law, it is the judgment of the Court that a total divorce be granted, that is to say, a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, between the parties to the above stated case upon legal principles.

It is considered, ordered and decreed by the Court that the marriage contract heretofore entered into between the parties to this case, from and after this date, be and is set aside and dissolved as fully and effectually as if no such contract had ever been made or entered into.

Plaintiff and Defendant in the future shall be held and considered as separate and distinct persons, altogether unconnected by any nuptial union or civil contract whatsoever, and both shall have the right to remarry.

The Court restores to _____ the former name of _____.

The Court has determined that ☐ temporary/ ☐ permanent alimony in the amount of $ _____ shall be paid by the ☐ Husband/ ☐ Wife to the ☐ Husband/ ☐ Wife, ☐ weekly/ ☐ monthly/ ☐ annually/ ☐ other until _____.

The Court has determined that property shall be divided as follows:

_____.

The Court has determined that debts shall be divided as follows:

_____.

INFORMATION SHEET FOR PRO SE LITIGANTS

Wilkinson COUNTY

It is advisable to have an attorney when filing legal papers to be sure that your rights are protected and that all the procedures are correctly followed. Courthouse personnel are prohibited by State Law O.C.G.A. 15-19-51 from giving ANY legal advice. Different situations may require special procedures and courthouse personnel CANNOT advise you on how to proceed or what forms may be necessary in specific situations.

You may need an attorney if:

- The case is contested and your spouse has a lawyer.
- You cannot locate your spouse to serve him/her with your papers.
- You and your spouse have a house, pension, or large amount of property or income.
- You might lose custody of your children.
- You think you will have difficulty getting documents from your spouse about retirement funds, income, et cetera.
- Even if it is a friendly divorce, you should talk to a lawyer before you sign any settlement papers or file anything in court.

If there is any question in your mind concerning the forms that you are filing, or your legal rights, it is strongly recommended that the services of an attorney be obtained. If you do not know an attorney, you may refer to the Yellow Pages under "attorney". If you are financially unable to afford the services of an attorney, you may contact the Georgia Legal Services Program to see if you are eligible for their services. You may find the number for your area in the Yellow Pages.

Due to the changing nature of the law, some of the forms available to the public for use in filing a divorce without an attorney may be outdated. It is a requirement of this circuit that you utilize the divorce packet available in the Clerk's Office of each county in the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit. Those counties are as follows: Baldwin, Greene, Hancock, Jasper, Jones, Morgan, Putnam and Wilkinson. In no event will the Clerk of Superior Court of any Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit county or their personnel be liable for any indirect or consequential damages resulting from the filing of your pro se forms. Any desired outcome in your case cannot be predicted or guaranteed by any court personnel.

Your divorce packet will be filed in the Clerk's office once the appropriate filing and/or service fees are paid. If you have children under the age of 18, please see the information at the bottom of this form regarding the "Children Cope with Divorce" seminar. All parties with children under age 18 in most civil actions (divorce, legitimation, et cetera) where children are involved are REQUIRED to attend within 30 days of service upon the defendant.

The Ocmulgee Judicial circuit requires the use of the forms that can be obtained at each individual Clerk's Office. However, at the time of your hearing, a judge may advise that there is something incorrect regarding the paperwork, i.e. jurisdiction, missing paperwork, et cetera. If that happens, it could necessitate re-filing, filing in another county or state, transfer to another county and would require additional fees.

If you have decided to represent yourself in a divorce case in Wilkinson County Superior Court, we have a specific set of forms required to be utilized in this circuit. However, due to the complexity of the law and rules and procedures that must be followed, you may require professional legal representation. We strongly recommend that you discuss your case with an attorney. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ACCURACY OF YOUR DOCUMENTS.

Helpful Reminders:

- Speak with an attorney if you are uncertain about what you are doing.
- Read all instructions carefully.
- Sign your name on the documents in front of a notary public. We do not have a notary in this office. Documents must be signed before filing here.
- Are you filing in the correct county? The Superior Court of Wilkinson County.
- Are you using the Wilkinson County Sheriff's Department for service of process? The fee for service is $50.00. If service is out of county, you will have to make the appropriate arrangements with that Sheriff's Department.
- Research the law that pertains to your divorce petition.
- Fill in only those things that apply to your situation.
- Keep copies of everything you file for your records.
- Check your petition for accuracy.
- File your petition in the Clerk's office. The filing fee is $200.00.

ALL FORMS REQUIRED MUST BE SUBMITTED FOR FILING, OR THE DIVORCE MAY NOT BE GRANTED.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have been given a copy of this document, and that I understand that by filing pro se, I am acting as my own attorney.

NOTICE
(Please read very carefully.)

This sheet is a requirement and must be filed with your Petition. Without this sheet, the Court has no way to contact regarding your case, and can be used to contact you in the event any correspondence or calendar is returned.

If a trial calendar is returned because of an insufficient address, there is a possibility that your case could be dismissed due to your failure to appear.

It is your responsibility to notify the Court immediately if you move or any of your contact information changes. It is not the responsibility of the Court to obtain any new information. We will only use the information supplied to us by you.
